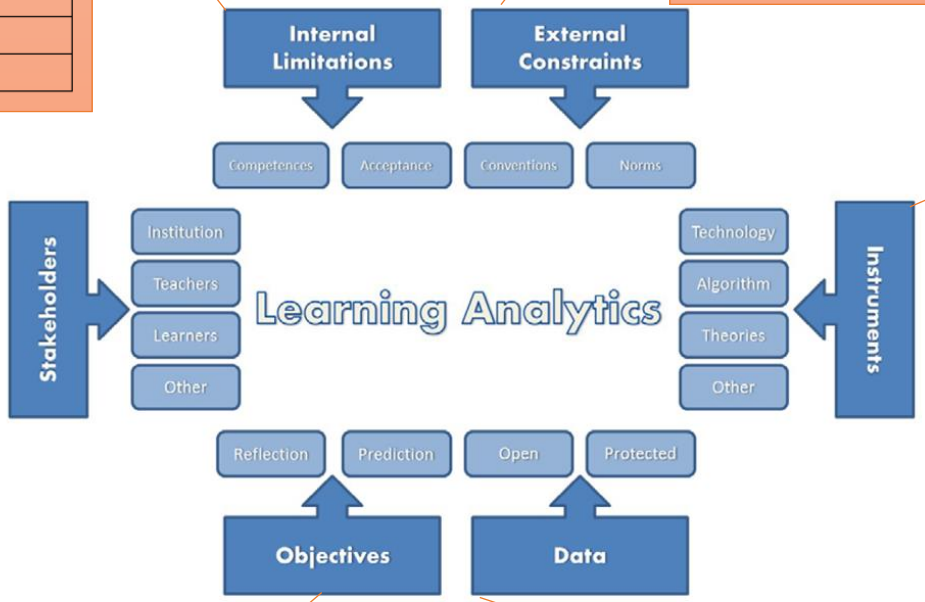
Handout: Institution as Stakeholder


Instructions: In this example the stakeholder is the institution. Incorporate the information used at the student and lecturer level (previous activities) to inform learning analytics at the institutional management level. Think about the projects that provides the institutional decision makers with data that they need in order to achieve the strategic goals. Think about how such a project aligns with the LA dimensions. Write your comments in the boxes supplied next to the five dimensions.