

Chinaza Uleanya

Attendance of SAAIR 2018 CONFERENCE AS A SCHOLAR

With great delight and pleasure, it is exciting to state that the 2018 Southern African Association of Institutional Research conference hosted by the Durban University of Technology (DUT) South Africa was wow! By wow, I mean amazing. As a part of the young or emerging scholars, I had the opportunity of meeting with astute and well established researchers who were ready and willing to engage socially and in research related matters. All expenses (feeding, transport and accommodation) were covered by the association. It was indeed a worthwhile period for young scholars to learn new things and possibly locate established scholars on whose shoulders they could climb to see the world and get better in their field. I have no regret attending the conference and wish many other associations will follow suit in providing great platforms of such to raise young or emerging scholars.

LONG LIVE SAAIR!

LONG LIVE ITS EXECUTIVES!

LONG LIVE ITS MEMBERS!
